

Women Graduates-USA
Press Release
January 31, 2008

Women Graduates-USA, Inc. has filed an application for affiliation to the International Federation of University Women (IFUW) as the national affiliate of the United States of America. Currently there are 78 national federations and associations (NFAs) around the globe who make up IFUW.

The Women Graduates-USA application will be on the agenda of IFUW's Council meeting in February. IFUW's membership committee is formally considering the proposal and will make its recommendation to the Council. If the Council approves the application, it will then go to all dues paying NFAs for their votes of acceptance. It is anticipated that the vote will be completed by September 2008.

IFUW is an international, non-profit organization of women graduates working to promote life long education, to improve the status for women and girls, and to enable women to effect positive change for a peaceful, sustainable future.

Women Graduates-USA is a national, non-profit organization of college women graduates whose mission is to empower women globally through education, friendship, and mutual support to secure a better world. Detailed information can be obtained on the WG-USA website, www.wg-usa.org
