

Who Can Belong?

WG-USA membership is open to all women graduates with recognized degrees, irrespective of age, race, nationality, political opinions, sexual orientation or other status. The degree may be obtained from any accredited higher education institution in the world. U.S.A. residents are especially encouraged to join.

WG-USA recognizes degrees that meet the following criteria:

- The degree, diploma or similar qualification is awarded for a program that normally requires at least three years of study at a university or educational institution of comparable standing.
- In the case of educational institutions other than universities, the entrance requirements are the same as required for university entry.
- The resulting degree, diploma or similar qualification would make the holder eligible for entry into a Master's level program.

Or, the degree meets membership requirements for the International Federation of University Women (IFUW).

Membership fees are $50 per year, renewable on the original date of application.
